WELCOME TO THE PEARL RIVER 34

WELCOME TO THE PEARL RIVER 34, A HUNTING AND RECREATIONAL PROPERTY OFFERING A RARE COMBINATION OF SPACE, WATER ACCESS, AND PRIME WILDLIFE HABITAT. This 40± acre tract in Pearl River County, MS, ensures privacy from neighboring camps.

Enjoy the two-bedroom, one-bath cabin with a loft—the perfect retreat! Step onto the covered porch and take in the views of the Pearl River, where deer, ducks, and other wildlife are frequent visitors. When it comes to fishing, you've got options—a private 3.5± acre pond serves as your personal fishing hole, a peaceful alternative to the public waters of the river. Whether casting a line in the pond, exploring the property's food plots, or utilizing its road system, there are endless ways to enjoy the outdoors.

MORE ABOUT THE PEARL RIVER 34

Bordering Old River WMA (15,091± acres) and just nine miles from the Bogue Chitto National Wildlife Refuge (36,000± acres), this property provides access to vast public hunting lands. A public boat ramp on the Louisiana side of the river, roughly six miles south, makes it convenient to launch and explore the waterways. Situated across the river from Bogalusa, LA, and within reach of Hattiesburg, MS, and New Orleans, LA, this place is well-located for both convenience and an escape.
